"FALL IN."

The Command Issued for Tammany to Fall in Line and Work for Democratic Success.

Cleveland and Hendricks Indorsed by a Unanimous Vote and Their Election Assured.

The Declaration of Faith to the Party--Preparing for a Grand Ratification.

Tammany for Cleveland.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Last night the Tammany general committee met to make their report on the course to be pursued by the organization in the campaign. But few members were absent. Senator Foster presided and Gen. B. F. Spinola, chairman of the general committee, read the committee's report. That portion relating to the course of the organization in the campaign is as follows:

The candidates of the democratic party having been nominated in national convention, following the uniform and unbroken record of our organization, we acquiesce in the will of the majority of the representatives of the party, although we believe that will to have been unwisely expressed. There is but one alternative left us, to sever our connection with the democratic party. This we cannot and will not do. In justice to our constituents and our judgments we can not pursue that course. We believe that time will disconnect the democratic party from the leadership of men who have used their power unwisely and detrimentally to its success. We acquiesce in, although protesting against, the unwise and injudicious course which they have pursued and we say with John Adams that "there is no good government but what is republican, for a republic is an empire of laws and not of men." The mistakes of men can not blind us to the beauties and immortal principles of the democratic party and for these principles our organization was established. Its founders protested against the monarchial tendencies of the federalists, and we oppose the same centralization of power in the republican party of to-day. We believe in the retention of all constitutional safe-guards. They would destroy them and resort to all kinds of profligate expenditures and corruption, maintaining an overflowing treasury by unjust taxation wrung from the people. We advocate retention of the public domain for actual settlers. The present republican senate prevented the forfeiture of land grants to railroads declared in a resolution passed by the present democratic house of representatives, by which nearly 40,000,000 acres of lands granted to railroads were to be returned to the public domain for non-fulfillment of contract.

Under the democratic party the citizen is protected at home and abroad and the speedy release of Martin Koszta is an instance to show with with what celerity the protection of the United States was thrown around an American citizen under a democratic administration and a secretary of state like William L. Marcy, as compared with the doubting and halting policy of the republican secretary of state, James G. Blaine, during the presidency of Garfield, in allowing McSweeney, an adopted citizen of the United States, against whom no charges were alleged or proven, to linger for months in a British dungeon. We believe in the democratic party and its immortal principles. Men make mistakes. Its representatives and leaders may be inconsistent, time serving and lack the strength of their convictions, but in it is liberty to be found, freedom of thought, freedom of speech and action, and protection to every citizen alike. For the reasons herein set forth, we recommend that this organization support the nominees of the democratic party for president and vice president, made at Chicago Friday, July 10, 1884, and submit for its consideration and adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the democratic republican general committee of the city and county of New York, in Tammany Hall assembled, hereby ratify and indorse the nominations by the national democratic convention, held in Chicago, July 10, 1884—for president, Grover Cleveland, of New York; for vice-president, Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana—and hereby pledge ourselves to the earnest and cordial support of the candidates so nominated.

Applause and hisses greeted the reading of the address, and for some time it was doubtful which prevailed; but finally the cheers had the best of it.

In moving the adoption of the address, General Spinola said the mere wheeling into line of Tammany Hall would not secure the election of the Chicago candidates. The democrats of the whole country must also wheel into line. It was possible, even at this late date, to snatch victory from the jaws of death.

When General Spinola sat down, ex-Senator Thomas P. Grady demanded recognition from the chair. Grady was cheered even more than Kelly had been earlier. The chairman pounded the table for quiet in vain. The crowd would not become quiet. During the uproar Grady took a position on the platform next to the chairman. He was at last permitted to proceed. After his first sentence he was again applauded, and rounds of applause punctuated his whole speech.

Burke Cochrane, who it was expected would pronounce against Cleveland said: "There is a duty which every democrat has to perform at the present crisis—he must subordinate his action to the interests of his party. No person contended more vigorously than I did against the nomination of Grover Cleveland; no one opposed more earnestly the folly of passing over in silence and indifference the heroes of the party in order to nominate a man who was forced upon the attention of his party merely by the press and a few refractory republicans, who had never failed to express their abhorrence of our principals and their contempt for ourselves. Had such a man as we wanted nominated been nominated we would have given him a majority such as we are asked to give Grover Cleveland. I hear a cry of distress throughout the country, and that cry calls me to arms for the democratic ticket. [Cheers.] Tammany Hall is not an organization to be governed by feeling town'd or from men. It was a body of principle; beyond revenge lies patriotism, beyond dissatisfaction lies loyalty. Under these two master impulses you will win. Tammany Hall is an old guard of the democratic party, and there we will stay."

[Long and continued cheering, during which Cochrane seconded the resolution and sat down.]

The chairman ordered the secretary to call the roll on the adoption of the resolution. The result of the vote was 810 ayes and 87 nays.

A committee was then appointed to make arrangements for a grand ratification meeting, and after a call for primary elections was read the meeting adjourned.

A Worthy Accession.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Sept. 13.—Capt. D. F. Allen, our worthy mill owner and influential citizen, has withdrawn from the republican ranks and last night attended a meeting of the Cleveland and Hendricks club, and in a pithy speech announced that he would support the democratic nominees. This change of Captain Allen is the result of study and conviction. The tariff had most to do with it. He believes the present low prices are due to the republican protective policy, and sees no relief except by a change which will give, with an honest administration of national affairs, a reform of the tariff. Without any intention on his part of producing it there is yet a very marked sensation in political circles over this action of Captain Allen. His acknowledged popularity and influence bodes good for the democracy and the republicans are correspondingly depressed by it. In his speech he said: "I trust I shall prove no dead-head in my espousal of Cleveland and Hendricks." There is not even a republican here who will not accredit Captain Allen with patriotic motives in his change of parties. He is not and has never been a seeker for office, but is a business man and has a state reputation.

Johnson's wife and two children have been living at William Smith's near the center of town. Johnson first struck them and then turned for his wife, who started down stairs. At the bottom she fell and Johnson struck her head with the ax.

Smith went down town and notified the authorities and while he was gone, Mrs. Smith says, Johnson returned and again struck his wife to make sure of killing her. The murderer then escaped.

The Gazette prints an item this morning about the "Insubordination of Irish Voters," and says a prominent "South side" democrat remarked, "To h—l with the Irish; let them kick and be d——d." It may be interesting to know that the item was stolen bodily from the Indianapolis Times, a lying publication. The Gazette scissors artist did not have tact enough to change the expression "South side," and it gives the theft dead away. Of course the squib is the sheerest fiction and on our desk lies the republican Indianapolis Times with the stolen item.

RHEUMATISM "HAD" HIM!

"No," replied a sufferer, racked with cruel pain and bitter torment, "I haven't Rheumatism, but Rheumatism has me!"

And what a terrible grip Rheumatism has, when it takes hold of its victim! It is not unusual to read people who have been tormented by this tyrant for so many years that they thought their inheritance of pain could never be removed.

Rheumatism comes from poison in the blood. The doctors have wrestled with it in vain. They have found their prescriptions powerless to subdue it.

ATHLOPHOROS has won the victory.

MR. D. G. Stratton, of New London Conn., was long a victim to Sciatic Rheumatism, so that he could not walk. In twenty-four hours ATHLOPHOROS set him on his feet, and took away his pain.

Mr. Godwin, of Crumpton, Md., was a sufferer to a frightful extent with Rheumatism. The change wrought in him by ATHLOPHOROS has astonished the community where he is so well known.

The Rev. Mr. Beecher, of Chicago, brother of Henry Ward Beecher, has been afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism. He writes that via ATHLOPHOROS "has removed all the sharp pains," and that he "recommended his friends to try it and be convinced."

ATHLOPHOROS "CURED" HIM

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

Two Polish Cleveland and Hendricks clubs have been organized in one ward in Chicago.

An astronomer says that to travel the distance to the sun at ordinary railroad rates of fare would cost over $2,500,000.

It would not be so very surprising to hear that General Grant had openly declared for Cleveland in view of the recent conversions.

We are safe now. The developments of the last few days show that Cleveland and Hendricks have the entire Fish-Po(u)nd to themselves.

The democratic party promises that the affairs of the government shall be purely and economically administered and that every citizen shall enjoy the protection of the government.

Ohio is a republican state, but the republicans are just now very uneasy about it. Should they fail to carry it in October it is all up with them. But the democrats can elect Cleveland without Ohio.

It is asserted that President Arthur is figuring to break into the senate at the expiration of his term, a plan with which Blaine is said to be heartily in sympathy. But Blaine no doubt would much prefer sending Arthur as minister to Cape Town, Africa, or some other out of the way place, than having him around where he could always pester him.

Maine had a total population in 1880 of 648,936, of whom only 58,883 were foreign born. Of the foreign born 37,114 were from British America. There were only 688 persons of German birth in the state. No other state in the union has so few citizens of German birth except Vermont. There were 18,822 persons in Maine from Great Britain. Of these 88,421 were of Irish birth. The vote of foreign born citizens cuts but a small figure in Maine and that of Germans none at all.

The protest against Blaine's election grows stronger every day from the men of his own party. Ex-Secretary of State and ex-Governor, Hamilton Fish is enthusiastic and out-spoken in his determination to vote for Cleveland for whom he has "the greatest respect and admiration and personally I should like to see him president. He has made a splendid record as governor and I believe would do equally well as the chief executive." Mr. Fish is not alone in this position but is joined by Benjamin H. Bristow, Grant's secretary of the treasury, and Francis A. Walker, chief of the census bureau. This news will certainly be cheering (?) to Mr. Blaine.

Notwithstanding Garfield had a majority of 34,000 over Hancock in Ohio four years ago the republicans are greatly afraid the state may go democratic at the October election this year. In that event they know their goose will be cooked and that Cleveland will certainly carry the state in November. The democrats, however, could afford to lose Ohio and still elect the president. The republicans must carry it or go under.

The loud boastings of the republican press about the disaffection of Tammany is over. Tammany Hall has by its own action, unbiased and unprejudiced, declared its intention to support Cleveland and Hendricks, and this by a vote of 810 to 87. The democracy of New York now presents an unbroken front and will march on to a glorious victory. New York is safe beyond question and Cleveland will certainly be inaugurated as president on the 4th of next March.

The remains of the celebrated war correspondent, Jas. A. McGahan, now rest in his native land and in the county of his birth. This fact reveals a curious side in life. When McGahan was yet a young man, his neighbors saw nothing in him to admire and refused to assist him, but when he had won renown and world wide fame and had lost his life in the accomplishment of his work then they opened their hearts and received his bones, placing them in a cemetery near a place of which McGahan in his youth shook the dust from his feet in anger and disgust. Appreciation very frequently comes too late to be of service.

Republican journals say that our farmers do not need a change in the administration of public affairs—that they are raising big crops and are prospering. With wheat at seventy and seventy-five cent per bushel, on account of an overstocked home market and no demand for it abroad because of our refusal to remove restrictions on trade with other nations, certainly does not indicate a great degree of prosperity. Our farmers cannot afford to raise wheat for less than $1 a bushel, but they are compelled to take what they can get for it, foreign nations taking no more from us than their absolute wants, because of the refusal of this country to establish reciprocity of trade with them.

The republican party stands in a double attitude before the people of the country. It is of a Janus face character with the one side appealing for the votes of the prohibitionists and the other beseeching the co-operation of the anti-prohibition party. By the course of its vote in Maine it has declared in favor of a prohibition amendment while its representative, Mr. Blaine, lacked the moral courage to declare his convictions on the question. He stands poised on the fence, beckoning with either hand to the two elements of the country and pleading for support when he can offer to them only the statement in explanation of his position on the question, that he refrained from voting. On such a declaration he hopes to secure assistance from both and in this cowardly attitude he will not gain the confidence of either.

The question comes directly home to a laboring man when he deposits his ballot, whether he has voted to best serve his own interests. Has he voted for the party or for the person who will make the best executive, which will give to the country the best administration and which will aid him the most in his daily toil for the necessities of life? The republican party has been in power for twenty-four years. It has had control of all branches of this government and it is to-day responsible for any crash in commercial affairs. Promises have been made year after year to the workingmen of this country that the republican party would give them relief; that this party would give them work and would give them good wages with nothing to drain their purses. Has it kept its promises? The workingmen themselves can best answer that question.

Carl Schurz is having great success in his political meetings if crowds and enthusiasm are indicative of success. Thursday evening at Chicago, Music hall was densely packed to listen to his unanswerable arraignment of Blaine's public life. It is fair evidence that his words are telling blows when they cause the adherents of the republican nominee to make frequent interruptions during his address. But Mr. Schurz displays a vast amount of good sense in answering their questions instead of becoming angry at their interruptions. As a result of his trip through the northwest Mr. Schurz asserts that 70 per cent. of the German vote in those states will be cast this year for the democratic candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, an event which will occur for the first time this year and which, to speak prudently, places those states in which this class predominate, in the doubtful list. It is true that never before has the republican party witnessed such a stampede from its nominees and it is also true that its effect is being largely felt.

A minister in Lowell, Mass., has been obliged to give up preaching on account of trouble in his throat. If this reverend gentleman had taken Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup he would still have been a useful member of his profession.

WHAT!

Hon. Hamilton Fish and Benjamin H. Bristow Express Their Purpose Unreservedly.

Will Vote For Cleveland—Two Members of Grant's Cabinet Found Among the "Pharisees."

Fish and Hamilton Out for Cleveland.

New York, Sept. 12.—A Saratoga special to the World says: The sturdy old ex-secretary of state and ex-governor, Hamilton Fish, an old-time friend of Mr. Blaine, in spite of his long devotion to the republican cause, is outspoken in his admiration for Cleveland, in his bluff, hearty way, to the little group of admirers that can always be found about his favorite seat. Such men as Benjamin H. Bristow, who was secretary of the treasury while Mr. Fish was at the head of Grant's cabinet; Francis A. Walker, chief of the census bureau, and other men whose names stand at the head of the republican party, are equally outspoken in their determination to vote for Cleveland. It will be their first vote for any other than a republican, they say, but they must vote for him unless they choose not to vote at all. The idea of supporting Blaine is not even considered.

The venerable Mr. Fish, whose services as secretary of state under Grant, and as Governor of New York, elected by whig voters, make him one of the most prominent men in his party, was somewhat averse to talking publicly of his preferences for Cleveland. "I am out of politics altogether," he said, "and it would hardly look right for me to take any active part in the campaign under the circumstances. I have the greatest respect and admiration for the democratic candidate, and personally I should like to see him president. He has made a splendid record as governor and I believe would do equally as well as chief executive. Now about Blaine," he resumed in a retrospective sort of way, "I know him personally and a more agreeable, fascinating man I never met; but his past record"—and Mr. Fish broke off abruptly and pursed up his lips, fearful of saying too much. "I won't say anything of his doings in congress, for on that point there is some dispute; but his course in the department is patent to all. You know it as well as I, and it can not be too strongly condemned. I don't want to talk too publicly. I am out of politics and really must not say any more."

Benjamin H. Bristow was equally modest. He had been too honest for Grant as secretary of the treasury, and ever since then had tried to keep out of politics. "You know I am not a public man any longer," he said, "so don't ask me anything. Talk to my old chief, Mr. Fish. I have only one vote, and the deposit of that constitutes my entire work this campaign." "And what name will be on the ticket?" "I shall vote for Cleveland as an emphatic protest against the nomination of such a man as Mr. Blaine. It is the only way I can protest against the candidacy of so dishonest and corrupt a man. Yes, my one vote is for Cleveland." "It will be your first democratic vote, will it not?" "I don't call it a democratic vote, sir, I call it an honest one."

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes, and the unanimous voice of praise which comes from those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla fully justifies the claims of the proprietors of this great medicine. The republicans here falsely tell foreigners that they cannot vote unless they have been residents of this country for five years. The law is that a man who has resided in the United States one year, the state of Indiana six months, the township or county sixty days and thirty days in the precinct can vote at any and all elections. The republicans hope to keep a few democrats from the polls by this trick.

Mr. Moses Lamley sends THE SENTINEL an invitation to detail a member of its staff to the consecration of the new Hebrew burial ground, to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The cemetery is situated just west of Lindenwood and is approached through the main entrance to that grave yard and by a rustic bridge The ground is pretty and the natural scenery soft and pleasing. It is the purpose of DePauw university to establish a volunteer weather service in connection with the United States signal service at Greencastle, and W. H. Ragan, director of the proposed De Pauw service, suggests that all persons who feel inclined to co-operate with and encourage the movement will please correspond with the director, who will at once furnish such information and details as may as of value in that direction. He tells THE SENTINEL prophet it is especially desirable that prompt information concerning unusual phenomena, such as thunderstorms, high winds, heavy rains, early and severe frosts, snows, etc., be transmitted to his office, from which valuable deductions will be made.

St. Peter's church, of which the Rev. Father Meesman is pastor, has recently been greatly improved in its interior appearance. Mr. Kover, who is proving himself quite an artist at such work, has so tastily frescoed the building that his work is better than imported artists can boast of. The choice of emblems and figures is excellent and the beautiful blending of the various shades and colors and the delicate tints so finely wrought add greatly to the beauty of the little house of worship and make cheerful the heart and soul of the worshippers. THE SENTINEL learns that the entire expense of this work was generously contributed by the young men of the congregation, which shows too the esteem in which their good pastor is held. Another benefactor furnished two handsome chandeliers which grace the auditorium. St. Peter's is now one of the neatest churches in Fort Wayne.

Rev. W. N. Webbe Rebukes the Gazette's Falsehoods.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

The following statement was left at the office of the Gazette for publication last (Friday) evening. It did not appear in this morning's issue of that paper. In lieu thereof there appeared a statement similar to that of which the item I enclose is a contradiction. I refrain from any comment on such methods of journalism and only ask that you will give publicity to the truth as to my political proclivities in the present presidential campaign. I did not seek newspaper notoriety in this matter, but I do not wish to appear before the public in an equivocal position. Yours, etc.,

W. N. WEBBE.

The following is the card which the Gazette declined to publish:

To the Editor of the Gazette.

My attention has been called to a paragraph in the Gazette in which it is asserted that I "indignantly deny that I intend to vote for Grover Cleveland for president." If you will substitute the words James G. Blaine the item will be true in every particular as it will then read I indignantly deny that I intend to vote for James G. Blaine for president.

Clint. Walton, master of transportation of the Pittsburg, is at Chicago.

The testimony of many who long suffered from ill health, caused by an impure state of the blood, goes to prove that the best remedy for making the blood rich, red and pure, for beautifying the complexion, for curing sores, pimples and other skin diseases, for removing aches, pains, stiff joints, rheumatism, etc., for increasing the power of endurance, for giving health and strength to every weak portion of the body, is Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Its effect pleases the user in every instance. No other remedy equals it.

Panic Stricken.

A little smoke, only a little smoke, has produced a scare among our would-be clothing merchants that is really amusing. Piteous, whining appeals strike the eye in every column of the press, showing to what an extent the coming raid in prices by Sam, Pete & Max is feared.

Hold your horses, gentlemen! the profits of the clothing trade will be very thin in Fort Wayne this fall and winter, but lots of fun is in store for the consumer. 9d&wtf

VII Questions ! ! ! !

Ask the most eminent physician

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly

"Some form of Hope ! ! !

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to women"—

And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu ! ! !"

Ask the same physicians

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malaria, fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you:

Mandrake! or Dandelion ! ! ! !"

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable.

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II. "Patients

"Almost dead or nearly dying"

For years, and given up by physicians, of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs, called consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy ! ! ! ! !

From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness, and various diseases peculiar to women.

People drawn out of shape from excruciating pangs of rheumatism, inflammatory and chronic, or suffering from scrofula.

Erysipelas!

"Saltrheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion, and in fact, almost all diseases frail"

Nature is help'ss

Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood in the known world.

Your cough is growing worse. The soreness and pain in the throat and lungs is increasing. A very strong point in the thousands of testimonials that have come unsolicited to the manufacturers of Athlophoros is the high character and well known prudence of the persons who furnish them. The following from Rev. F. The other day he told me the pain was nearly all gone, and he entertains hope of complete cure."

She and other old ladies, used to boil the plant in their tea-kettles, and not knowing how to prepare it, did not obtain its full benefit, although lend in their praises of its manifold virtues. An eminent doctor spent the best part of his professional life in aiding scientific experts to prepare Pond's Extract. In sickness, every drop is worth its weight in gold. Beecher's Bad Head.

For two months in the year Henry Ward Beecher can't preach. In August and September he takes his vacation and endures the onset of the hay fever. A man with hay fever isn't accountable for his actions. He is frantic with snuffing, sneezing and headache. Every nerve in his skull thrills with distress and his head is a fountain of tears. He lives only to fly from one side to mountain top in search of relief. This form of catarrh (hay fever) Ely's Cream Balm will cure. Placed in the nostrils it penetrates and soothes the affected parts at once, restores the impaired senses and creates healthy secretions. You cannot run away from hay fever, but you can drive it from you by using Ely's Cream Balm.

Hay Fever.

I have been a Hay Fever sufferer for three years; have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms; did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the Balm, and I did so with wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of Hay Fever sufferers.—T. S. Geer, Syracuse, N. Y. Price 50 cents.

DYSPEPSIA

Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.

LYON'S KOZOTHIUM.

A Gift to the Gray and a Boon to the Bald!

BEFORE USING. AFTER USING.

Lyon's Kozothium is not a dye, but a clear, fragrant oil, and acts purely as a tonic to the hair follicles and capillary circulation of the scalp, whereby it restores the natural action, and as a result

RESTORES THE NATURAL COLOR

To the hair, rendering it soft and beautiful. This wonderful remedy, unlike all its predecessors, is

ENTIRELY FREE FROM SULPHUR, NITRATE or SILVER

And all noxious and deleterious chemicals. It has fast friends wherever known and used; it deposits no sediment upon the scalp, does not stain the skin nor soil the most delicate fabric, and is an

ELEGANT AND DELIGHTFUL HAIR DRESSING,

And an indispensable article to every lady's toilet. To middle-aged men who are prematurely bald, or becoming bald, it is especially recommended, and when fairly and properly used, will never fail in arresting the falling off of the hair and encouraging a vigorous and abundant growth of new and healthy hair.

From a Well-known, Prominent Clergyman.

SHELBYVILLE, Ill., June 12, 1884.

Messrs. A. Deiler & Co. Gentlemen:—A year or two since I began to lose my hair. A prescription by a barber temporarily checked it, but after a brief time it again began to come out by handfuls, and a prescription by a physician again checked it.

During last winter and spring it again became dry and harsh, and finally left the top of my head bare. My attention was called to your Kozothium. I was afraid to use it, dreading sulphur, lead or nitrate of silver. But matters were growing worse daily, and the fly season was close at hand, so I procured a bottle of Kozothium. The result is an excellent crop of hair, still, strange to say, of its original color, soft and pliable, a clean scalp and no irritation, and this on the head of a man over fifty. I have no hesitation in saying it is the best hair restorer extant, and from trial I do not believe there is a particle of anything dangerous in it.

Yours truly, REV. B. MILLS.

From a Lady of Clay County.

BRAZIL, Ind., July 7, 1884.

Messrs. A. Kiefer & Co., Indianapolis: Gentlemen—Having but little faith in Hair Restoratives I was after much hesitation and with great reluctance, induced to try a bottle of Lyon's Kozothium. My hair was gray, coarse and harsh, and so fast for years, whatever combed or brushed, it would break off. Upon using the Kozothium a speedy and desirable change took place. My hair became live and lustrous, regained its natural color, ceased to break off, and is now as soft, elastic and glossy as anyone need desire. As a hair dressing I now find it indispensable, and indorse it heartily for all purposes for which it is recommended. Mrs. FANNIE E. WARMLEY.

From a Popular Hardware Man.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 1, 1884.

Messrs. A. Kiefer & Co., Gentlemen—I have set antipathy to all so-called hair restorers. A few weeks ago, however, giving way to the persistent entreaty of a friend, I tried Lyon's Kolothium. I am delighted with it. My hair which was very gray, has been restored to its former natural color. It is no longer harsh and coarse, but is smooth, glossy and healthful, and my scalp feels better than it has for years. I cheerfully bear testimony to the fact that Lyon's Kozothium is a true restorer of the health and natural color o the hair, and heartily indorse it. It is a cleanly remedy, but it is an admirable hair dressing, and now that I know its virtues I would not, under any circumstances, be without it.

Yours very truly, W. F. QUIGLEY.

From one of the Best Known Insurance Men in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 5, 1884.

A Kiefer & Co., Gentlemen—For some time my hair has been falling out, threatening me with baldness. I used Ayer's Hair Vigor, Hall's Hair Renewer and other remedies with no effect. My scalp has always given me trouble; being covered with scales, the result of a scrofulous affection. Recently I was prevailed upon to try Lyon's Kozothium. The effect was wonderful. Not only was the falling of hair promptly arrested, but a new growth of hair stimulated in its stead, but the scales were removed from the scalp, which is no longer feverish and uncomfortable, but cool and healthful. My hair, which was exceedingly gray, has resumed its natural color, my beard, to which it is restoring the natural color, though moves slowly than my head. I recommend it with confidence as a medicine for the scalp, a hair tonic and a hair restorer.
